Family Relief Fund

The California Military Family Relief Fund (CMFRF) was enacted by Senate Bill (SB) 1162 to allow individual taxpayers to contribute to California National Guard Families in need through a selection on their state tax forms or individual donations.

The California Military Family Relief Fund provides financial assistance, in the form of a one time grant, to soldiers and their dependents when there is a valid need. This fund is open to California National Guard members who meet the following eligibility criteria:

- Current member of the California National Guard in good standing
- Current California resident
- Deployment to active duty for at least 100 consecutive days in Title 10 USC status
- Member's military salary has decreased by 30 percent or more from civilian salary

Families requiring financial assistance may contact their unit point of contact or a CMFRF representative to apply for financial assistance grants. Application forms are also available online at <http://www.calguard.ca.gov/cmfrf>
